In the match Lancashire v. M. C. C. and ground a 'oricket curiosity' is recorded as having happened while Hernby was batting for the County Palatine. A report of the match says:—A rather curious circumhead, in delivering a hall, let it slip out of his hands, and it pitched only about eight or nine yards. Hornby rushed up to hit it, but Whitehead was quickest, and picking up the ball just as the bat man was gong to strike it, and returning it to Carlin, the latter put the wicket down when Hornby was out of his ground. Some tongkangs were engaged Mr Stanley has been ipeaking strongly to unload the rice and take it in bags to a mill in Kampong Kapor. The boatmen provided themselves with brass tubes sharp at one end, and on the way to the rice mills pierced the bags with the tubes, through which the rice ran down into the men's perquisite bags. They were found disposing of several well filled bags in the of the brass tubes they have been in use for a considerable time, and the Rochere police are to be congratulated on having detected what is evidently a regular system of robbery of no recent origin. The device has often been discovered in use on the quays, where any boat can go close under the bags lying at the edge and take substantial loads without detection.

> FOR some years past, says a naval contemporary, gur ships have been waiting, for their guns-in fact, ever since, very late in the day, our Ordnance authorities made the discovery that their neighbours had made some years earlier of the vast superiority in range and penetration of breechloading over muzzle-loading ordnance. Now the ships of the Admiral class have all got their guns, and, wonderful to relate, the Nile's Brst 67-ton gun has arrived at Portsmouth, although her date of completion is not until next August. A 9:2inch gun has also arrived for the Galatea, and a 10-inch B.L. gun for the Thunderer, so that the guns may at lest be said to have pretty well caught up the ships but the gunmakers will be fully employed during the next four years to supply all the ships in the present building and repairing pro-

THE Pinang Gazette has no doubt about it that the Acheen war has been a curse to the people of the sister settlement whose trade it has interfered with, and whose prosperity it has endangered. Before the war a prosperous and steadily increasing trade was carried on between Acheen and that settlement, as the Achinese were the chief consumers of goods imported into Penang, and Penang took the whole crop of Acheen papper. Upon the outbreak of the war trade was greatly reduced, and was carried on under disadvantageous circumstances, but now, owing to the long blockade of the coast and the recent fighting in Edie, there is hardly any trade at all.

From a military point of view she is not in a position to undertake anything in the Far East until her Siberian Railway is finished, and as a co siderable interval must elapse before that time, speculations are now quite premature. The Kokumin attributes the circulation and persistence of such rumours to one of two things; namely, that En glishmen's jealousy of Russia betrays them into taking distorted views of her proceedings; or that Korea's present danger in purposely exaggerated with the intention of rousing China to a due sonse of the real and thus paving the way for an alliance between England and China. We imagine that the Kokumin Shimbun is not so wide of the mark as are some of the journals which have recently aired their opinions on this question. - Japan Mail.

It is somewhat curious that the appointment of Sir Cecil C. Smith, the Governor of the Straits Settlements, to be Her Majesty's High Commissioner for the portion of Rorneo under British influence, has never appeared in the Gazette. The appointment of the Governor as Consul-General has so opposed, but it will readily be seen that there is a great difference between the two posts. As Consul-General Sir Cecil can only report and advise the Government at home, but as High Commissioner he can act instanter and report afterwards. It is just possible that this fact may have been known to Rajah Brooke, and that he hastened on that account with the annexation of the Limbang River territory to that of Sarawak, before the appointment was grzetted.

SUPREME COURT. IN OR GINAL JURISDICTION. (Before His Honour Mr Fielding Clark. Acting Chief Justice.)

Tuesday, July 1.

Mr Francis, Q.O., instructed by Hastings (of Messrs Wotton and Deacon's Office), appeared for the plaintiffs; and Mr. 66 Phillippo, instructed by Messra Holmes and Rodyk, for the defendant.

Mr Francis said he appeared to show 58 cause why his Lordship should not set aside his judgment in this suit. Judgment had been signed in the action against the three defendants on a specially endorsed writ and on an application made by Mr Phillippe last week on bohalf of the third defendant o have the judgment set aside his Lordship granted a rule mist on the grounds alleged; that the third defendant had not been regularly served and that he was not partner in the defendant firm. The write was served on the third defendant by solicitor's clerk, which might be an irregularity, but did not outitle him now to ask that the judgment be set aside. As to the allegation that he was not a partner, he ought to have appeared and made that defence when the case was before the Court instead of waiting for two months, a period during which he had an opportunity of manufacturing evidence. His Lordship asked Mr Francis if there
